

(MP2)-ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 6--SOOTHING--Nan Bergin entertains passengers aboard a Northwest Orient Airlines luxury flight with organ music, a service inaugurated by Northwest on its route between New York, Chicago and Minneapolis-St. Paul. The modified, 190-pound instrument will be played by a relay of six professional organists. Miss Bergin, an employee of the supplying music firm, plays before an unidentified group of passengers. (AP Wirephoto 661814b 50)

OCCUPATIONS - FLIGHT ATTENDANT

Northwest Airlines

Historical

DEC 15 1959